

Researching Your Family History

5 week introductory Course

STARTING: Wednesday 4th March 2020, 10.00 am – 12.00 noon

Have you always wanted to research your family history but don't know where to start? Or have you started and got stuck-where do you go next? This introductory course will help you plan a comprehensive strategy, and signpost you to the wealth of information sources available. These will include paper based as well as online resources, and ensuring that you use free resources first!

What you will learn:

- Websites to use: pros and cons
- Where to find free information
- Census, adoption, religious and workhouse records
- How to obtain Birth, Marriage and Death certificates
- How to record information, online or on paper in folders

All you need to bring is pen and paper and what you have found out so far!

Cost: £45

For more details please contact:

Adult & Higher Education on 02392 583890
adulted@stvincent.ac.uk

Progression

- Further courses to build on this introduction may be planned

*Education
Progression
Success*

