

Uniformed Protective Services

Reading / Watching List for underpinning course knowledge.

It's vitally important that students use independent study time to improve their understanding of a range of British Public Sector Protective Services. The list below provides guidance and programmes you might find informative:

- BBC News (and other news agencies) - vital in understanding current affairs and how events and politics affect the way we live and work in the Services.
- Police Interceptors / 24 hours in Police Custody / Police – on the front line
- Nothing to Declare (UK)
- 999 – What's your emergency?
- Helicopter Rescue
- Warship (HMS Duncan)
- Britain Behind Bars
- Raw Recruits (Squaddies at 16)

There are many more but please make sure that you research British documentaries.
